

Nur ul Quran

GRATITUDE AND THANKFULNESS

Allah (SWT) said: "And [remember] when your Lord proclaimed: 'If you are grateful, I will surely increase you [in favor]; but if you deny, indeed, My punishment is severe.

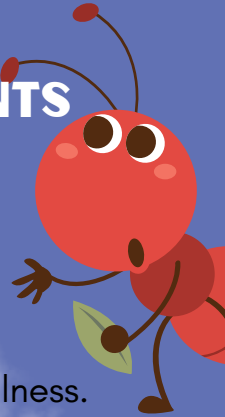

"Surah Ibrahim (14:7)"

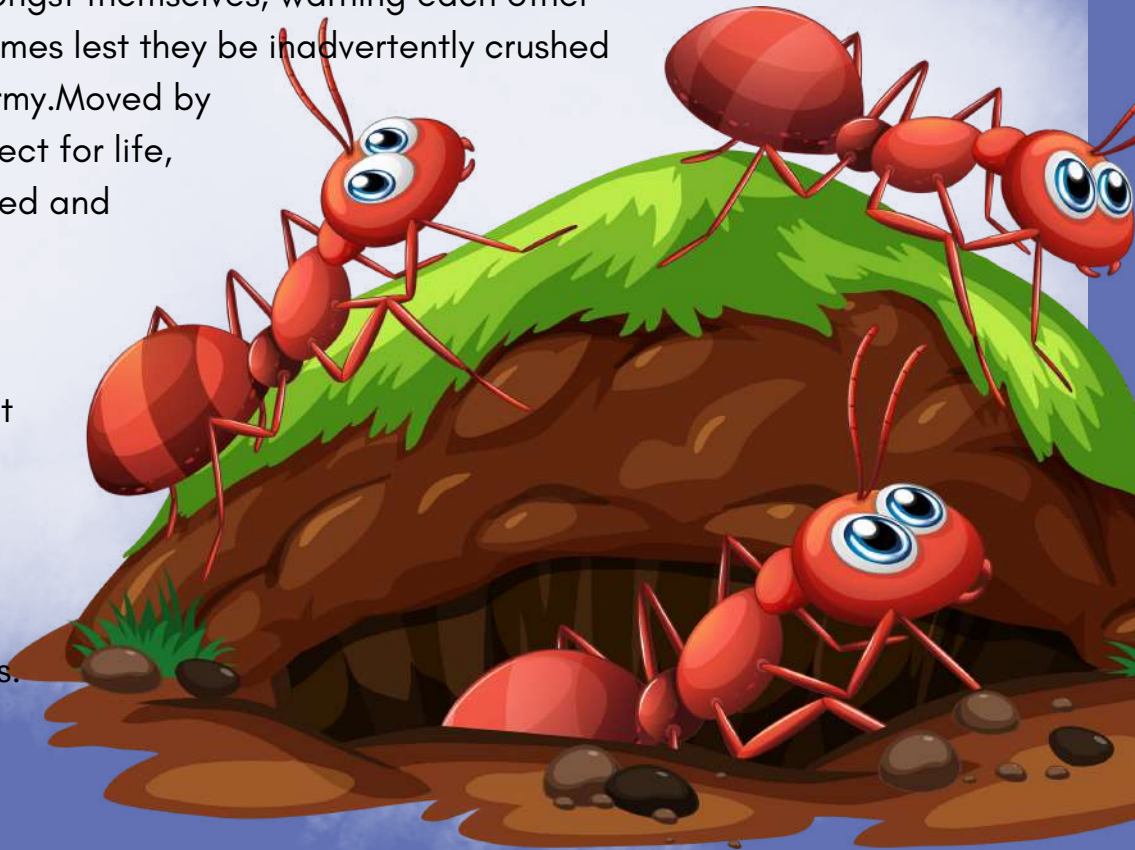

Nur ul Quran

PROPHET SULAIMAN (SOLOMON) AND THE ANTS

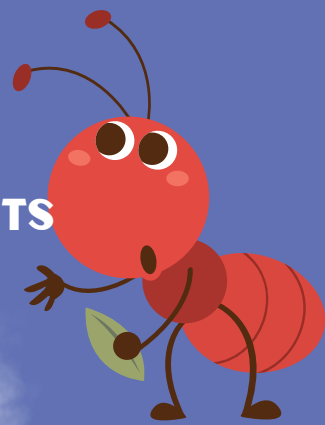

In the time of Prophet Sulaiman (Solomon), known for his wisdom and kingdom, there was an incident that highlighted the importance of gratitude and thankfulness. One day, as Prophet Sulaiman and his army were passing through a valley, they came across an ant colony. The Prophet paused when he heard the ants speaking amongst themselves, warning each other to retreat into their homes lest they be inadvertently crushed by the approaching army. Moved by their caution and respect for life, Prophet Sulaiman smiled and thanked Allah for blessing even the smallest creatures with wisdom to protect themselves. He then ordered his army to change their course to avoid harming the ants.

Nur ul Quran

PROPHET SULAIMAN (SOLOMON) AND THE ANTS

The Lesson of the Story

The story of Prophet Sulaiman and the ants teaches children the importance of gratitude and thankfulness towards Allah for all blessings, big and small. It emphasizes that showing gratitude extends beyond human interactions to include appreciation for the blessings bestowed upon all creatures.

Reference: Surah Al-Naml, verses: 15-19.

