

Nur ul Quran

THE THREE GREEDY BROTHERS

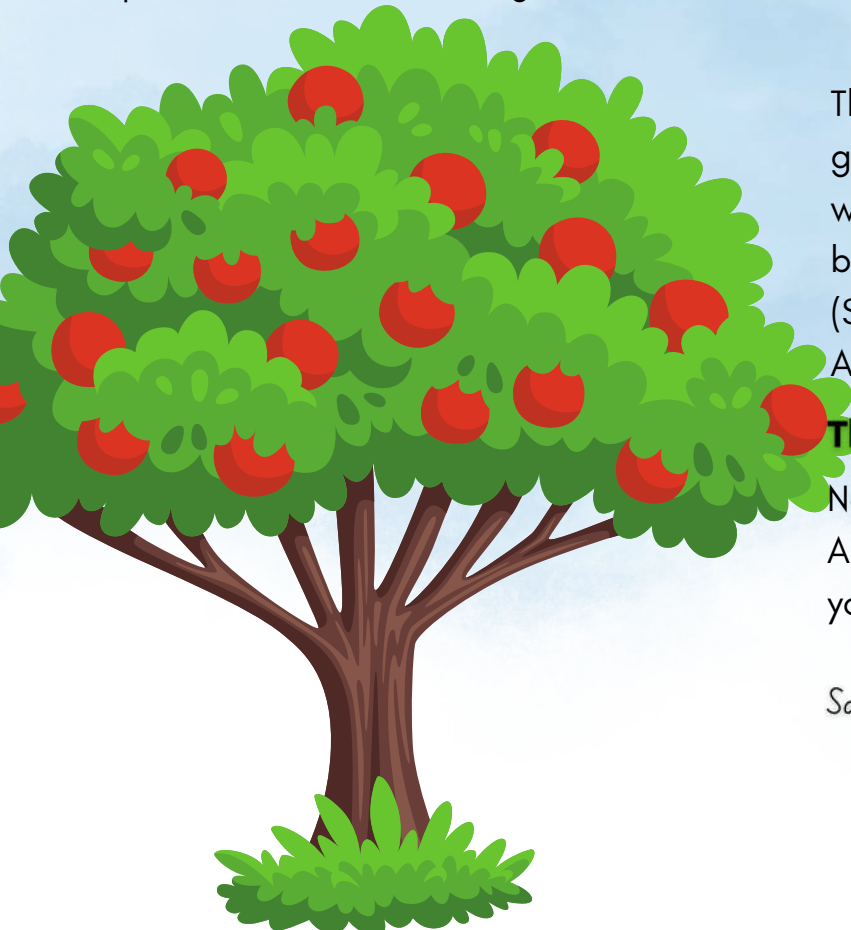

Nur ul Quran

THE THREE GREEDY BROTHERS

It was narrated in Surah Al-Qalam that three brothers had a great garden. This garden was full of beautiful green plants, fruits, vegetables, and many goods. One day, they sat together and agreed to never give any of the garden's fruits to the poor and to take all the good to themselves.

The next day, when they reached their garden, they felt they had lost their way! Their garden became dry, wild, and black! It was a punishment of Allah (SWT) for their greed and for forgetting Allah's favors and blessings!

The Lesson of the Story

Never forget Allah's favors and blessings. Always give the poor what Allah has given you. Praise Allah for his mercy and blessings.

Source: Surah Al-Qalam, verses: 17-33.